

Net Impact System

Management Reporting Certification

L&D has often fallen short in the ability to tell a story on how they are driving the business forward.

The Net Impact System helps L&D functions focus on reporting impact and driving out waste.

This practical, hands-on certification will enable you and your organization to:

- Better facilitate conversations with Executives

- Set up your measurement to enable effective Management Reporting

- Produce actionable continuous improvement reporting to drive learning effectiveness

- Tell the story of L&D impact on the business in a way that resonates

Become a Management Reporting Professional (MRP) today!
